

Exception or Exceptional?

Do you want to be "the exception" or do you want to be exceptional and live an exceptional life?

Whether they realize it or not, a lot of people want to be "the exception". I know I have and still sometimes do.

Consciously or subconsciously, a part of us thinks or wishes...

- I want to be the ONE PERSON who doesn't have to change and really stretch and challenge myself to have what I want. I want to be the ONE person who doesn't have to work so hard. I want to be the ONE person who gets to spend my money however and whenever I want - regardless of whether I have the money or not.
- I want to be the ONE person who keeps betting on the "come" or the "one day miracle" to solve my problems who actually makes it.
- I want to be the ONE person who doesn't have to PRACTICE focusing on abundance, paying attention to money, being disciplined and consistent day after day after day.
- I want to be the ONE person who DOES "get rich quick".
- I want to be the ONE person who has it all come easy... to have abundance handed to me on the silver platter.
- I want to be the ONE person who doesn't have to go through the process of INTERNAL transformation necessary to have the external results I want - including financially.
- I want to be the ONE person who just has to think about, read about and talk about abundance and actually have it and attract more of it.
- I want to be the ONE person who doesn't have to take ACTION and have things just happen without effort on my part.
- I want to be the ONE person who spends more money than I make and still becomes financially independent.
- I want to be the ONE person who gets out of debt without having to change the way I think about and use my money.
- I want to be the ONE person who already knows it all... and doesn't have to learn any more.
- I want to be the ONE person who gets it right the first time... and never has to practice or work again.
- I want to be the ONE person who doesn't have to go through the natural human process of learning and growth - which includes making mistakes, failing at times, repetition and practice.
- I want to be the ONE PERSON who doesn't have to WORK at it.... at least not really.

In other words, I want to be the exception. I want MY PROCESS of accessing and attracting and experiencing the abundance I desire to be different from what everyone else has gone through, including...

- Andrew Carnegie
- Oprah Winfrey
- Mother Teresa
- Bill Gates
- Warren Buffett
- Tiger Woods
- Barbara Walters
- Jimmy Carter
- John D. Rockefeller
- Robert Kiyosaki
- Donald Trump
- Michael Jordan
- Mark Victor Hansen
- PLUS nearly every (if not every) millionaire and multimillionaire who has ever lived.

But here's the catch...

As long as you keep wanting and trying to be this kind of EXCEPTION, you'll never take the actions that can have you be EXCEPTIONAL and have an EXCEPTIONAL life!

There's a saying that goes something like this...

If you're willing to do for a short period of time the things most people are not, you will then be able to spend the rest of your life doing what most people cannot ever do.

The choice is yours...

Are you going to [unsuccessfully] try to be the exception or are you and your life going to be EXCEPTIONAL?

The answer lies in your actions... day in and day out.

Are you choosing to prosper?
